All materials for this class are provided.

Are you ready to try something new? Join us and give Casein a try. This all materials included class will give you a chance to experience Casein hands on. Whether you are looking for a new medium or just getting started in art, this class will teach students how to use the paint, what surfaces are optimal and the types of brushes to use.

What is Casein? Casein is a water-based paint with a vast array of versatility! This creamy paint dries to a beautiful matte finish and can be used both opaquely and transparently. The vibrancy of the colors makes this an attractive medium.

Space is limited; call or stop in to register.
